

“Whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly. I can never be who I ought to be until you are who you ought to be.
This is the interrelated structure of reality.”

-Martin Luther King, Jr.

Remembering a man who made equality a reality, dreaming of a day when all people would be treated equally.

We dream of a day when America's employers open their doors to the talents of the 33 million working-age people with disabilities.
